

2009 COLD WAR SUMMER SCHOOL
Villa Morghen, Settignano (Fi)

Wednesday, September 2: Arrival at Villa Morghen and dinner at 20:30 pm

Thursday, September 3

9-10:30 Panel 1

Dayna Barnes The occupation of Japan, continuity and change during the early cold war

Lucrezia Cominelli US Policy towards Italy in the 1970s

Discussant: Mario Del Pero

11-12:30 Panel 2

Carlo Patti The US and Brasil, 1974-1979

Victor Figueroa-Clark Doing what they know how: Chileans in the Sandinista armed forces

Discussant: Tanya Harmer

14-15:30 Panel 3

Giuliano Garavini European Foreign Policy: Does it Exist? Reflections on the Historiography of the External Dimension of the European Community and its Limits

Mohammed Ghetta US-Algerian Relations: Boumediene Reshuffles Algeria's Foreign Policy, 1969-'70

Discussant: Federico Romero

16-18:30 Discussion

What is Cold War in the Era of Detente ? Tanya Harmer and Silvio Pons

Friday, September 4

9-10:30 Panel 4

Amal (Molly) Tarhuni The US, Britain and the Radicalisation of the Qaddafi Regime 1969-1986

Antonio Renzi In the shadow of Vietnam. Washington and the British withdrawal from South East Asia

Discussant Antonio Varsori

11-12:30 Panel 5

Artemy Kalinovsky Taking Sides: The KGB and the Soviet Military in Afghanistan's Internal Disputes

Valentine Lomellini The Final Act of Helsinki, a final act for the Western communist parties' autonomy from Moscow

Discussant: Silvio Pons

14-15:30 Panel 6

Umberto Tulli Between Human rights and Detente. The Carter Administration, Congress and Dissenters in the Communist World

Goetz Bechtolsheimer The United States and Mobutu's Congo; the Lyndon Johnson Years

Discussant: Leopoldo Nuti

16-18:30 Discussion

Globald Cold War and European Cold War. Arne Westad and Leopoldo Nuti

(20:30 Dinner in downtown Florence)

Saturday, September 5

9:30-12:30 Discussion

Organizing Cold War Studies in Europe: Topics, Themes and Institutions

Svetozar Rajak, Antonio Varsori and Federico Romero

13 Lunch and departure